Honesty is the Best Policy

Being honest is really significant and without honesty there would be no trust, love and hope around us and people in the world would be roaming around with stone hearts. I mean, what could be worser?

For instance, if a student has flunked in his exams, he would fear to tell his parents for any reason. But if he shares the news honestly with his parents without hesitation, then they may give him more attention and trust for his future decisions.

If we are being honest with others, they will surely have confidence in us. They will keep in mind that we won't let them down at all. Our beloved Hazar imam also emphasized us to be honest in our daily life and adopt ethical and moral values while dealing with people around us.

Honesty refrains us from being sinful in the eyes of God, and always keeps us on the right path.

It is also an important fact that being honest is onerous, and sometimes may upset others but once you get the hang of it, even your surroundings will understand and appreciate you.

Thus, in my opinion, honesty is the best policy to adopt in our daily lives.

HONESTY IS BEST POLICY..

Honesty implies being truthful. Honesty means to develop a practice of speaking truth throughout life. A person who practices Honesty in his/her life, possess strong moral character. An honest person shows good behaviour, always follows rules and regulations, maintain discipline, speak the truth, and is punctual. An honest person is trustworthy as he always tends to speak the truth.

Every one of us must have heard the phrase "Honesty Is The Best Policy". It is indeed a wise phrase. Probably, every child learns this teaching from their parents. This beautiful teaching has been taught some time immemorial. However, its practice has certainly fallen short.

People resort to lies very easily nowadays. Furthermore, there is rampant corruption these days. People deceive others by being dishonest. Hence, there is an urgent need for this teaching's revival.

Honesty strengthens and improves relationships between people. It certainly helps in bringing people together. Most noteworthy, it fosters a connection between individuals.

Honesty enhances the reputation of a person. An honest individual enjoys enormous respect and status in society. Everyone seems to be fond of such a person. Furthermore, a truthful person can easily generate trust with other people.

HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY

The famous proverb, 'Honesty is the best policy', it means we have to say the truth not a lie. Good qualities of a honest person is he or she does not cheat or lie. It means the principle which we have to follow in our life, irrespective of any kind of situation. Telling the truth is better than lying. Even when it is hard to do it we tell the truth, we don't have to remember what we said. The truth may hurt a little while but a lie hurts forever. An honest person shows good behaviour follows rules, maintains discipline and is punctual. Honest policy prevents corruption and promotes authenticity. It is a 'Sign of bravery.' It improves relationship between people. Moreover, it gives peace of mind. Honesty is the light of hope and ultimate solution for various problems. It is easy to advice others to be honest but it is difficult to follow ourselves.

Having transparency in your thoughts and what you speak or present in front of others is said to be having an honest trait. One should not only be honest with others, but they should be also honest with themselves.

The quality of honesty is admirable in an individual but life dishonesty is considered a sin in all religions. The quality of honesty in a person will shine like sun provides us with the eternal light.

But let us all try, try to be honest and irrespective of the situation.

Honesty is the Best Policy

Honesty is very important in our lives. It stops us from cheating, lying or purloining. Our beloved Prophet Mohammed was also a sincere being and because of his honesty and truthfulness, people believed and admired him, even a few of his enemies began to follow his right path.

Here I give you a short story of two classmates, Nancy and Sophia. Nancy was very candid but Sophia was an immoral and obnoxious girl. During their holidays they went on a summer vacation, and forgot to accomplish their school assignment. Nancy apologized for delay in submission of her assignment, but still practiced half of it, while Sophia said she forgot her work at home.

The teacher, frankly, was not impressed; she told them to complete their task during recess. Nancy got full marks, because she was saying the truth, that she had practiced half of her homework, whilst Sophia got no marks, because she was not being honest.

This is how honesty affects so much in our lives. An honest person shows ethical behavior, follows the rules, speaks the truth, and is punctual, just like Hazar Imam wants us to be.

So, for me honesty is always the best policy in the world.

Honest is The Best Policy

O. Being loyal.

Fr. Great moral.

Yo. Friendship disappearance.

Being honest may get people understand you, it will always get you the right one who will.

It is a popular saying that honest is the great policy. Nowadays, one see many things around us which are not honest. It takes a thousand lies to cover one lie. Dishonesty indeed is a never ending trouble. Therefore honest is the best policy which bring loyalty around you.

By being honest we can be confident and walking proudly. If we are not honest we do not have to fear anything. Honest gives us great moral and strength. It requires courage and boldness. While dishonesty will soon be discovered.

Honest is an expensive gift don't expect it from cheap people. you may end up forming conflict and lose some of your good friends.

Therefore, honest is the first chapter in the book of wisdom be honest and true all through the life even in bad situation as honesty is the best policy. We should be loyal and tell the truth always in our lives or any situation. as it will free us from trouble and answering questions from many people.
